

stop trying to take our rights away please xm radio should have the right to say what the weather is for god sake. i suppose they dont have the right to notify us of impending doom either. find something else to do with your time please. and if this is using any tax dollars, quit wasting my tax dollars also god bless free speech. thanks Doug.